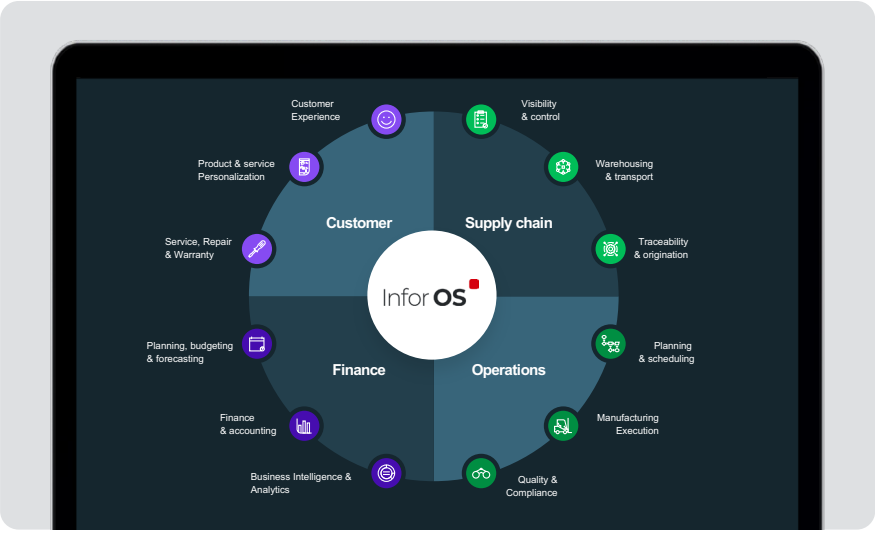
Integrated suite of applications for industrial manufacturers

Infor's CloudSuite, underpinned by the Infor OS Platform, provides industrial manufacturers with a cloud solution that seamlessly connects people, machines, products, and the most complex of business processes. The integration transforms customer service, enhances operational efficiencies, and ensures future innovative business agility to help maximise revenue growth in dynamic market conditions.



Ring Container improves visibility with the cloud

"We gained that system-wide visibility, so any one of our 19 global plants could jump into the system and say, hey that plant runs similar equipment, how are they achieving better results? This real-time data allows for us to have manufacturing flexibility to continually grow."
